Tip the Kitchen 15

Wondering about the cookies? Our Tip The Kitchen program is a completely optional way for guests to show appreciation directly to the chefs that prepared your food. Just like the top you give your server, 100% of this money goes directly to the kitchen staff. If you've had an especially delicious meal, let your server know you'd like to tip the kitchen.

We'll bring you the bell to ring and give them a round of applause!

cocktails

The Old Fashioned Cocktail Origin Unknown 16
High Proof Bourbon, Sugar, Bitters, Orange Peel Smoke
This is the one that started it all way back in the 18th century. Some historians claim the drink originated in Louisville while others stick by the opinion of "I don't know."

Bourbon Bramble by Gary Crunkleton 16
High Proof Bourbon, Orange Blossom, Maraschino Paste, Fresh Squeezed Lemon
The bramble is a cocktail from London that uses gin and fresh fruit. We take their idea and Americanize it with bourbon and cherries. It's served in a julep cup which keeps it cold when the weather is not.

Overproof Painkiller by Daphne Henderson 17
Overproof Rum, Coconut Cream, Fresh Squeezed Orange, Pineapple, Lime, Nutmeg
From the Soggy Dollar bar on the island of Jost Van Dyke in the British Virgin Islands. The bar's name is logical because most clientele are sailors and there is no dock. Hence they have to swim ashore, often pausing for drinks with well-dollars. This 1970's Tiki style drink is about as delicious as a Tiki drink can get.

Elderflower Sour by Gary Crunkleton 16
Tanqueray London Dry Gin, Ginger, Elderflower, Fresh Squeezed Lime
This floral concoction gets its due from the botanicals of the gin, pepper from the ginger, and tartness from the lime. This drink is one of our most popular and the neighborhood loves it.

Cantarito Origin Unknown 16
Tequila Reposado, Fresh Squeezed Grapefruit, Orange, Lime, Agave Soda, Tajin
The Cantarito, a popular Mexican beverage served in a clay pitcher, is believed to have originated in Jalisco, Mexico, during the early 20th century. Its name comes from the Spanish word "Cántaro," meaning "pitcher."

Strawberry Brandy Crusta by Cody Kruse 16
Hennessy, Dry Curacao,Strawberry Gin, Lemon
An inception of a cocktail our modern take on a "Brandy Crusta". Invented in the 1850's by Joseph Santini in New Orleans. The balance of fruity and tart flavors sure to dance all over your tastebuds.

Poets Dream Martini Origin Unknown 16
Tanqueray London Dry Gin, Benedictine, Dry Vermouth, Orange Bitters
Inspired by the Bitters Dreams poem "The Poet's Dream", written about a dreaming poet. This cocktail has alluring herbal notes that pair nicely with the gin to make it a great drink for any Classic Martini lover. Truly a timeless Classic.

French Martini by Kelli McNally 15
Tanqueray Vodka, Chambord, Pineapple, Lime
A luxurious and sophisticated option for those who indulge in fruity cocktails. This is a modern interpretation of New York by Keith McNally in the late 1980's.

Soju Spritz Origin Unknown 15
Your Choice of Watermelon or Lychee Soju, Fruit Puree, Lemon, Soda Water
A fruity, light and refreshing cocktail, perfect for the summer heat.

A Dusty Cactus by Nathaniel Wescott 17
Tequila Reposado, Fresh Squeezed Lime, Habanero Shrub, Champagne, Mole Bitters
This is a relatively new drink that tastes twelve years old this year. It's popularity transcends its relatively young age and is sure to be on its way to becoming a classic. Shoots to its longevity at The Crunkleton.

The Gin Gin Mule by Andrey Saunders 15
Tanqueray London Dry Gin, Ginger, Mint, Angostura, Fresh Squeezed Lime
This tipple is two drinks in one. It takes the ingredients in the Mojito and melds it with the ingredients of a Moscow Mule. The twist is we use gin to bring both together. We love this 2005 drink at The Crunkleton and we applaud Andrey Saunders for creating it.

The Paper Plane by Sam Ross 18
High Proof Bourbon, Aperol, Amaro Montenegro, Fresh Lemon Juice
A riff on the classic Last Word created in 2007 by Sam Ross at the Violet Hour in Chicago. He first made this drink with Amaro and Campari but swapped out the Campari for the less bitter Aperol soon after creating the drink. Sam says "This cocktail is named after the M.I.A. track that was blasting on repeat the summer we worked on the drink."

Bee's Knees by Mr. Margaret Brown 16
Tanqueray London Dry Gin, Local Wildflower Honey, Fresh Lemon
A simple drink created by a complex woman in the early 20th Century. Mr. Margaret Brown was married to a millionaire miner from Denver but made the drink popular while partying in the women-only bars of Paris. She was also known as The Unsinkable Molly Brown after dramatically surviving the sinking of the Titanic.

Caipirinha Origin Unknown 16
Cachaça, Sugar, Lime
The Caipirinha originated in Brazil at the start of the 20th century. Origins are unknown, but it is speculated that it was created as a remedy for the Spanish flu. Later, upper-class patrons popularized it, and it become the National drink of Brazil.

Revolver by Jon Sator 16
Woodford Reserve Bourbon, Coffee Liqueur, Orange Bitters, Lemon Peel Swath
Created in San Francisco in 2004 as a more appreciable riff on a Classic Manhattan. Jon's goal was to create a cocktail that could be made at any bar using ingredients already on hand.

Classic Daiquiri by Jennings Cox 15
Light Rum, Lime, Sugar, Angostura Bitters
The name Daiquiri comes from the Cuban mining town where Jennings worked at the turn of the 20th century. He created it one day when a colleague asked him to make a cocktail after a long, hot day at work. It is crisp, light, and refreshing.

BARREL AGED COCKTAILS 20

Cocktails that already possess a certain depth of flavor are carefully selected to be further enhanced by the charred oak barrel. Aging the drink in the barrel allows the various ingredients to mix together and round out the flavor towards a new expression all together. We learned this amazing approach from its innovator, Jeffrey Morgenthaler.

Barrel Rested Old Fashioned
Old Grand Dad 114, Rittenhouse Rye, Demerara Sugar, Peychaud's

Barrel Rested Vieux Carre
Rittenhouse Rye, Hennessy, Punt E Mes, Benedictine, Peychaud's

Barrel Rested Negroni
Tanqueray, Campari, Punt E Mes, Orange Bitters

NON-ALCOHOLIC COCKTAILS 13

Here at The Crunkleton, we care deeply about inclusivity and using only the highest quality ingredients when making drinks for our guests. It is to that end that we are proud to present this thoughtfully crafted list of Non-Alcoholic Cocktails. These drinks feature the same Fresh Juices, Syrups and Hand-Carved Ice you've grown to love but made with Non-Alcoholic Spirits. The use of Non-Alcoholic Spirits creates the same level of flavor and complexity one would expect from our cocktails, simply without the booze.
